Truman to Hold To Tax Demand

Four-Billion Increase Is Needed, President Tells Press

Washington, May 12 (AP)—President Truman said today he is standing by his demand for a $4,000,000,000 tax increase. It is needed, the President told a news conference, if the government is to avoid going into the red.

Mr. Truman asked the big tax increase in his January state-of-the-union message to Congress. The subject was brought up at his news conference because Rep. Doughton (D-N.C.), who heads the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, said after a White House call yesterday that he thinks the government must make economies to keep income and spending in line with each other rather than looking to a tax increase.

The President said he had retired about $26,000,000,000 in national debt since he took office. That, he added, is more than any other President in history had retired.

Mr. Truman went on to say that this government ought to retire from two to five billion dollars in debt every year.

As a result of the huge wartime expenditures, the govern-

'Ad' in Freeman Brings 156 Replies

HELP WANTED—FEMALE WORK AT HOME—full or part time, addressing, filing, sealing envelopes; good pay. Box 1411, Uptown Freeman.

It is a truism that Freeman want ads bring results, but even Freeman staff members were amazed this morning when the mail brought no less than 156 replies to the above classified advertisement which appeared in The Freeman, Tuesday, May 10. These replies, together with seven received Wednesday, were delivered to the advertiser this morning. He said, "You folks are okay. This is the first time I've advertised, and I never expected anything like this."

In the memory of present Freeman staff members, this is the largest number of replies ever received for a single insertion in the classified columns of this newspaper.

Robinson Declares City Must Map Course; Bridge Is 'Reality'

Dr. George Robinson of the Bureau of Planning of the State of New York, in an address before the Kingston Lions Club at the Governor Clinton Hotel, bluntly warned that Kingston is on trial and has but a very short time to organize a planning commission or suffer great future losses. In opening his address Dr. Robinson told his audience that he would be compelled to criticize Kingston for not getting ready to meet the challenge of the great change coming over our national industrial and economic pattern. "Whether we want to realize it or not, a tremendous change has been going on since the termination of the war. Those communities which have planned, have gained; those communities which have not acted, have lost much," he said.

The speaker cited much factual information to augment his statement. He vividly described the progress the small community of Westport had accomplished through planning. By comparison, the speaker explained the problem facing Poughkeepsie with its increasing traffic problems as the result of the present bridge approach and the tremendous cost which will be needed to correct it by arterial highways.

Very Few Months

Dr. Robinson explained in detail the preparation of a master plan and the period of time needed to work out details. He suggested that members of a planning commission be those who would be devoted to the task ahead and willing to do the necessary heavy thinking. "Of course, it is finally up to the people of the community to determine what it will have, the kind of a place they want it to be, and what they are willing to pay for. The viewpoint of the citizens is needed in regard to changes in pattern. I am trying to tell you that you have very few months, everything is on the move. If we are to meet these changes, we have to get to work."

The speaker also discussed in detail the new proposed super highway and declared that many sections of it are now under construction. He also said that Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge is a "reality." Dr. Robinson urged that the location be coordinated in line with proper urban development. "You can make these projects invaluable aids to your community or a mess; don't gamble. Get your plan ready now. Plan your layouts and design. You will have to redesign certain parts of your city," the speaker concluded.

Expansion Problems

Dr. Robinson also discussed the influence which we are to feel from the New York area expansion problem arising out of New York City.

Ship Stowaway Identified As Missing Gerhard Eisler

New York, May 12 (AP)—A stowaway on a Polish liner at sea has been identified tentatively as Gerhard Eisler, missing alien Communist who was under $23,500 bail in the United States.

Eisler had fought for a long time to get out of the country. The liner Batory, which sailed from New York six days ago, radioed that a German stowaway who identified himself as Gerhard Eisler had paid for first class passage after discovery and was bound for Gdynia, Poland.

Scotland Yard detectives today were waiting for the scheduled arrival of the ship at Southampton. The England, next Saturday, as the U. S. Department of Justice investigated Eisler's reported disappearance.

The Gdynia-America Shipping Lines, Ltd., owners of the ship, awaited a response to a radio request for details on the stowaway.

The 53-year-old Eisler, who faced two possible jail sentences in the U. S. and who also was awaiting deportation proceedings, has not been seen by his New York neighbors since last week. His wife and their apartment yesterday, but had not seen him.

Eisler has admitted being a Communist, but denied being the No. 1 Red in this country—as alleged before the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He even sought help from the United Nations in an effort to be allowed to leave the United States voluntarily and return to his native Germany.

He is one of more than 30 alleged alien Communists accused in

Senate Gets Hush-Hush Red Reports

'Mr. X' Appears Before Investigators of Spy Activities, Cannot Be Named

Vilfan Is Cited

Yugoslavian Delegate to U.N. Called Top for Espionage

Washington, May 12 (AP)—Senate investigators of Communist spy activities arranged a hush-hush meeting behind closed doors today to question a mystery witness they call "Mr. X."

Senator McCarran (D-Nev.), chairman of the judiciary subcommittee conducting the inquiry, refused to give a clue to the man's identity.

Subcommittee aides said he was summoned to the secret session (9:30 a. m., E.S.T.) in "danger of his life" and cannot be named "because of his connections abroad."

McCarran said only: "If he wasn't important, he would not be brought before us; if he was not very important, he would not be brought before us in a closed session."

The witness was called in connection with hearings on a bill by McCarran which calls for the deportation of any alien found to be engaged in subversive activities against the United States. It also is designed to strengthen the immigration barriers.

The bill, McCarran has said, is aimed particularly at foreign agents who come into the country under the guise of representatives to the United Nations and other international agencies.

A public session late yesterday the subcommittee was told that Dr. J. Vilfan, Yugoslav's chief delegate to the U.N., is "the main, the top man for espionage in this country concerning the Yugoslavs."

The sworn testimony came from Bogdan Radista, a former information officer at the Yugoslav embassy in Washington. Radista said he broke with the government of Marshal Tito in 1946 and later relocated this country as a displaced person.

Earlier Radista had testified that Vilfan in Europe sent "hundreds of thousands of innocent Yugoslavs" to their deaths. "He was also said Vilfan now is 'developing a secret police' network from a luxurious Fifth Avenue apartment in New York."

Radista called Vilfan "a member of the Central Committee for the Slovenian Communist Party."

In New York, Vilfan described Radista as an unimportant man whose charges are absurd.

Another witness, William H. Smyth, told the subcommittee that the Yugoslav-American home on West 42d street in New York "appears to be without any doubt the center of Yugoslav Communist activities on the eastern coast."

Smyth, born of American parents, in China, said he was in business in Yugoslavia for 20 years.

He and his wife recently had been sharing a seven-room, $72-a-month apartment in New York with another couple. Occupants of the apartment did not answer the door bell when newsmen went there last night. A woman who answered the telephone refused to give any information.

First word of the stowaway came last Monday when he radioed here that one had been discovered, and that he then paid for first class passage.

A spokesman for the Steamship line here said a routine report was made to immigration officials. The Batory then was asked for the stowaway's name, nationality and destination.

A message received from the ship yesterday identified the stowaway as Gerhard Eisler, a German, bound for Gdynia in Communist-dominated Poland.

After this information was relayed to immigration officials, they had the line ask the ship for his date and place of birth of he stowaway.

An answer to that message was awaited today.

The U. S. State Department asked Scotland Yard to detain the stowaway when the Batory reaches Southampton. After stopping at Southampton on Saturday, the Batory is scheduled to stop at Copenhagen, Denmark, on Sunday and complete her trip at Gdynia Tuesday. The line flies the Polish flag, but is owned partly by Danish interests.

Eisler has been fighting against two jail sentences.

Lake Katrine Boy Critically Injured In Car, Cycle Crash

Bernard Heidcamp Taken to Kingston Hospital; Suffers Fractures, Bruises

Bernard Heidcamp, 15, R.D., Lake Katrine was injured when the bicycle on which he was riding and an auto were in collision at Foxhall avenue and Wynkoop Place this morning.

The boy's condition was described as "critical" this afternoon at Kingston Hospital. A police report said he suffered fractures of the left leg and elbow, multiple bruises and abrasions and possible other injuries.

Police were notified at 9:20 a. m. and the boy was taken to the hospital in a W. N. Comer ambulance.

Barbara Filiatrault, 32 Lindsley avenue, driver of the auto, police said, was in a "highly nervous state" after the accident, and was ordered to bed by her physician.

The police report said the car was headed north on Foxhall avenue and the boy on the bicycle was riding westerly out of Wynkoop Place into Foxhall avenue when they collided.

Officers Peter Camp, Louis Sapp, Jr., and Ernest Bartoff were assigned to investigate. They reported that the bicycle was "totally wrecked."

Need New Boxes

Albany, N. Y., May 12 (AP)—If the New York Telephone Co. wins a temporary 10 per cent rate increase for local calls, "pay station" service would not be affected. One of Clark's two other companions, William Triand, aged 16, of Stewart Manor, Long Island, was killed and the other, Frank Clyde, aged 23, of South Boston was seriously injured and is also in the Flushing Hospital with a possible spine fracture.

The three young men, who were employees of a carnival showing in Flushing, started out for a ride in Clark's automobile following last night's performance and went but a few blocks on Main street when the car jumped the curb and hit a tree. Triand was thrown from the car and died almost instantly. Clark, the driver, and Clyde were pinned in the automobile. The police reported that Clark apparently lost control of the car.

'Lonely Hearts' Couple Gets Change in Trial Location

New York, May 12 (AP)—Two alleged "lonely hearts" slayers have been granted a trial in the Bronx instead of in Nassau county, on the ground that public prejudice against them is so great in suburban Nassau that they could not get a fair trial.

State Supreme Court Justice Thomas J. Cuff yesterday allowed the change of venue for Raymond Fernandez, 34, and his plump girl friend, Mrs. Martha Beck, 39.

They are accused of slaying Mrs. Janet Fay, Albany, N. Y.,

Loughran Is to Have Bridge Office in City

Bridge-Office Shift Irks Assemblyman

Poughkeepsie, May 12 — Assemblyman Watson Pomeroy, Millbrook Republican, today told The Associated Press he was opposed to moving the New York State Bridge Authority's executive offices to Kingston.

His reason was that the mid-Hudson bridge at Poughkeepsie was most important in point of traffic and revenue.

At the office of James F. Loughran, elected to the post yesterday, it was said that it has been customary to have the offices in or near the home of the chairman.

Since 1943, the offices were at Poughkeepsie, home of Robert Hoe, during his term as chairman.

Highland Man Is Seriously Hurt In Auto Mishap

In an automobile mishap at 3:30 this morning in Flushing, Long Island, Arthur Clark, aged 22, of Chodokee Lake Drive, Highland was seriously injured. He is in the Flushing Hospital having sustained a possible fractured skull.

One of Clark's two other companions, William Triand, aged 16, of Stewart Manor, Long Island, was killed and the other, Frank Clyde, aged 23, of South Boston was seriously injured and is also in the Flushing Hospital with a possible spine fracture.

The three young men, who were employees of a carnival showing in Flushing, started out for a ride in Clark's automobile following last night's performance and went but a few blocks on Main street when the car jumped the curb and hit a tree. ## Chosen Chairman of Authority; Has Been Member Since 1945

James F. Loughran, Ulster county superintendent of highways, is the new chairman of the New York State Bridge Authority. He was elected unanimously at Wednesday's meeting held in Poughkeepsie.

During the session he recommended that the executive office of the Authority be removed from Poughkeepsie to Kingston, and his suggestion will be carried out as soon as available quarters are found.

After his election, Loughran said, "I am proud and pleased with the honor given to me." Concerning the shift of the executive office to this city, he remarked, "It will be of great benefit not only to Kingston but to Ulster county as well."

Other members of the Bridge Authority are Dr. John L. Edwards of Hudson, George W. Pratt of Highland, Neil Brandow of West Coxsackie, Robert Hoe of Poughkeepsie, retiring chairman, who served in that capacity since 1943, and William K. Haginbotham of Catskill, executive secretary.

Loughran has been with the Authority since July 24, 1945, when he was recommended by Senator Arthur H. Higgins to fill out the term of Haginbotham who moved into the post of secretary. He was reappointed for another three-year term on March 18, 1947, by Governor Dewey.

The engineering experience of the new chairman covers a 40-year span. He has served that long as Ulster county highway superintendent, and this year was named for four more years by the board of supervisors. His road are considered among the best in the state.

Loughran organized and was first president of the New York State Association of County Superintendents of Highways, one of whose chief interests is building adequate roads to handle increasing motor traffic.

He is also an associate member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and the United States Naval Institute, and holds a license as a professional engineer and surveyor in the state of New York.

During the first World War Loughran served as transportation manager at Naval Operating Base Training Station, Hampton Roads, Va. He is a lieutenant (j.g.) Civil Engineer Corps, U. S. Navy Reserve Force (retired).

After graduation from Kingston Academy in 1902, he attended Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, and received his degree as a civil engineer in 1906. In June 1915 he received his degree of master of arts in highway engineering from Columbia University in New York.

Both Sides Show Many Courtesies

Military Trains Enter City First, Followed by Food and Fuel Carriers

Split Still Stands

Political Differences Are Still to Be Seen in City

Berlin, May 12 (AP)—The Russians pulled up their German iron curtain today, ending their 327 day-old Berlin blockade, major sore spot of the cold war.

Ground traffic flowed on through the day, by rail and by highway, pouring supplies and passengers into the long-besieged old capital city from the West for the first time in nearly 11 months.

The blockade-lifting had all the fanfare of a Hollywood movie premiere, and the people, convinced that at last this phase of the cold war was ended, whooped it up in the flag-decked city.

The Russian and western Allied military outdid each other in courtesy as the barricades went down ending the blockade, and the Allied counterblockade. There was a general display of good will and smiling readiness to cut red tape.

But the western Allies were taking nothing for granted. Their airlift, which had made the blockade a useless Soviet weapon by flying in the food, fuel and raw materials needed by West Berlin's 2,000,000 residents, continued flying. It is to continue at least 30 days, building a stockpile of supplies and giving a chance to really sound out Russian intentions. Today's flights kept supplies coming in at about a 300-ton per hour level.

Allied military trains, followed by food and fuel trains, were the first into Berlin after the barriers went down one minute after midnight. Foreign correspondents, racing down Hitler's famous superhighway, were the first into Berlin from the West.

Get Big Send Off

The vehicles had a big send-off at the old barrier points, which had been cleared of steel and concrete obstructions by work crews. There were cheering crowds, special lighting for the camera men, and a big display of black, red and gold colors of the new West German Government. The trains were plastered with placarded slogans.

The people, who had been slow to respond for days, really got into the mood. End of the blockade means for them the promise of fresh foods instead of the dehydrated stuffs the airlift had supplied them. It means more fuel, enough electric lights in their homes and an end of the street blackouts which the blockade caused. It means that they can move between the east and west sectors of Berlin, free again from the danger of molestation by the police. It means a sense of security they have not felt for the better part of a year.

The political splitting of the city between east and west remained as deep as ever, however. Each still has its own police force, city government, fire department and other services.

So they closed the schools today. Business houses planned to suspend work early, and the people thumped each other and swapped congratulations in public and informal gatherings.

The first Allied train into Berlin was halted only four minutes to get its clearance from the West.

Widow Gets Last Laugh

Boston, May 12 (AP)—A 60-year-old widow had the last laugh today on a cat that had her fired from her job as a domestic servant years ago. A Superior Court jury awarded Mrs. Anna Pesano $9,149.50 in her suit against the Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Co., executors of the estate of Woodbury Rand, Boston lawyer. Mrs. Pesano told the jury that Rand promised her $10,000 in his will if she would stay with him. He fired her later, she said, "for the way I looked at his cat." The feline was left $40,000 under the will—and Mrs. Pesano nothing. She sued on Rand's promise.

Moscow (U.P.)—Generalissimo Stalin was a favorite subject for many of the winners of the Stalin prizes of art this year. "Among the new works awarded Stalin prizes," wrote P. In the image of Comrade Stalin the Soviet people see the embodiment of its best traits, its ideals, victories and achievements."

150 Cars Needed To Make O. &amp; W. Line Profitable

In a plea for additional tonnage, George Zabriskie, vice president of the New York Ontario and Western Railroad, said that 150 cars a month would make the line a profitable operation.

He told this to the Kingston Chamber of Commerce at its meeting this week in the Governor Clinton Hotel, which was attended by a bare quorum of directors because illness, business engagements, and absence from town kept many away.

Zabriskie stated that the entire O. & W. is now operated with efficient diesel engines and by instituting other economies that there is a good possibility of making the line pay. He merely asked that some thought be given to the possibility of giving the O. & W. additional tonnage. He believed that the continuation of the branch line to Kingston would be of mutual benefit. It was a question whether the elimination of the O. & W. branch would be a serious economic loss to the city.

President Robert E. Teetsel referred the matter to the traffic and transportation committee for consideration and action.

Director Lawrence J. McCauley, chairman of the membership committee, reported that 202, including 25 new members, had already been received during the first 10 days of the renewal-mail portion of the campaign. Executive Secretary Albert Kudt added today that the total membership subscriptions received to noon had already reached the total of 211 and that each mill brought in some additional.

MacAuley stated that the membership committee decided to start the personal solicitation immediately.

The recent vicious and false rumors about the possible loss of certain Kingston industries brought forth considerable discussion. Executive Secretary Kudt was instructed to continue the efforts to promote local established industries through the committee set up for this purpose to combat such rumors.

A progress report was given by Henry Rigby for the Community Improvement Committee regarding the possibility of working on a Community College in or near Kingston. He pointed out that the been a servant of the Roosevelt and Truman administrations ever since 1933. It has persecuted the few men of character who have tried to be truthful. All the while, it has been controlled by the relentless power of the invisible government of the Frankfurter court. Although many newspapers do own radio stations and do broadcast news bulletins, it cannot be said that radio is a legitimate relative of the profession of journalism. This incidental cohabitation implies neither degradation of the papers concerned nor uplift of the radio stations. All radio men must carry the yellow ticket of the F.C.C. and in the case of Davis, late chief of the O.W.I., the professional separation from printed journalism is even more dramatic. Had he lectured on the O.W.I. that would have been appropriate. The most innocent freshman couldn't have failed to note that honor, integity and patriotism are absent from his list of requisite traits of a good journalist. I would not presume to think that these omissions were accidental in the calculated speech of a man so clever as Mr. Davis.

Friday 13th Safer

Chicago, May 12 (AP)—Are you superstitious, or do you think superstition is a lot of bunk? Well, the National Safety Council made a survey to find out how superstitious people are about Friday the 13th. It was the only day-by-day check ever made by the council on motor vehicle deaths. The result? Friday the 13th was 17 per cent safer than the two Fridays preceding and the two Fridays after that date.

Mustn't Say the Word

London (AP)—A nature writer in the highly proper London Times noted with a slight sniff that "the older botanists believed in calling a spade a spade." For British readers to whom "bloody" is a naughty word, he wrote: "I have offended a lady by telling her that a pretty wild flower, growing in masses on the cliffs, was the bloody cranesbill. 'To have compromised with blood-red cranesbill would have been more wise.'"

Worthy Deputy Pays Grange Visit

Rosendale, May 12—Harold V. Story of Ulster county, worthy deputy of Ulster county, was present on his annual official visit at the regular meeting of Rosendale Grange 1031 held Monday evening at the Grange hall. In presenting the recommendations of the State Grange, he stressed the importance of ritualistic work in developing a strong and successful subordinate Grange, and stated that comprehensive and interesting lectures and programs are vital for well attended meetings. Other recommendations included in the State Grange program are the lessening of farm fire hazards in constructing farm ponds for water supply wherever feasible, building strong legislative committees in each subordinate Grange and strengthening and enlarging membership. The goal for this year is eight new members for every subordinate Grange.

The painting committee which has completed the work of repainting and painting the exterior of the building regrettably announced that an expenditure of $25 was necessary to replace window panes throughout the building that were allegedly damaged by youngsters throwing stones and other missiles.

Worthy lecturer, Mrs. Edward Klepke, Jr., presented a program on Mother's Day. The winners in the rolled sugar cookie contest were Mrs. George Mollenhauer, first prize, and Mrs. Henry Mollenhauer, second. The subordinate Grange winners compete in the county contest at the Pomona meeting in September. Judges were Mrs. Harry Wesp and Mrs. Steven Huben.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Sterbenz of Bloomington, who are moving to New York, were given a farewell ovation by Grange members. The next meeting on May 23 will be an open meeting, with me-

Washington refused recently to upset his conviction on a charge of concealing Communist connections in an application for a permit to leave the country. The conviction on that charge brought a sentence of one to three years. For several months he has had an appeal pending before the U. S. Supreme Court from a sentence of one year and a $1,000 fine. The penalties were imposed on a conviction of contempt of Congress growing out of his refusal to be sworn as a witness before the House Un-American Activities Committee.

The government charged in deportation proceedings that Elser came to the United States in an effort to disrupt the nation's economy. Elser, who had been in the country since early in the war, said he intended only to pass through on his way from Germany to Mexico.

Elser acknowledged during his trial for passport fraud that the U. S. Communist party paid for two trips he made from this country to Europe in the mid 1930's. His sister, Ruth Fischer, testified against him in the deportation proceedings. She said he came to this country first in 1933 as an

York's complex and complicated problems. In concluding his address, Dr. Robinson, also touched upon the value of planning by saying, "A great scheme of public works would undoubtedly be fashioned by the Federal government in the event of a serious unemployment situation. Those communities who are planning would probably obtain much construction, those who are not planning, would probably again take leaves."

Dr. Robinson was introduced by Lion Dale Swartzmiller of the State Department of Commerce. Following his address, the speaker was presented with a certificate of appreciation for his well received remarks. The presentation was made by Ted Lee.

A resolution commending the efforts of local women bowlers in securing the 1950 New York State Women's Bowling tournament was unanimously adopted after being offered by Peter Keresman.

The sister—whom Elser later called a "rat"—quoted him as telling her he came here to "teach the stupid Americans" how to run the Communist party.

Truman to Hold

ment's debt now stands at about $251,600,000,000.

The President said he has exercised rigid economy and that his budget message to Congress in January called for rigid economy. He said he discussed Social Security, rather than taxes, with Doughton.

Doughton's House committee handles Social Security legislation as well as tax measures.

Mr. Truman replied with a flat no when a reporter asked if he thought a deficit could be avoided without additional taxes. Asked if he thought the additional taxes should amount to four billions, the President first said he'd have to see how things worked out.

But later he said he was standing by original recommendations.

He said he did not know what the deficit would be for this fiscal year, but certainly it would be far less than the four billion dollars. The administration originally estimated the deficit at between six hundred and seven hundred million.

This fiscal year is the 12 months ending next July 1. He was asked if he anticipates any change in his recommendation for the four billion dollar increase.

He said he did not anticipate any change and that the government ought to require from two to five billion dollars each year.

The national debt reached a high point of $278,400,000,000 in February 1946.

Roosevelt May Vote For Self in Election

New York, May 12 (AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., will be allowed to vote for himself if he wishes in a four-cornered election for Congress next Tuesday.

A Republican opponent challenged Roosevelt's right to vote, contending he had not met the residence requirements.

But State Supreme Court Justice Aaron Steiner ruled yesterday: "Circumstances are at least equal to show that it was his intention to become a permanent resident of Manhattan. A man's residence is pretty much where he wants it to be."

Republican nominee William H. McIntyre contended Roosevelt's residence actually was in a Long Island suburb until recently.

Roosevelt convinced the justice that the Long Island address was only his country home and that Manhattan is his permanent home.

The challenge could not have affected Roosevelt's candidacy in the 20th Congressional District on Manhattan's west side, because a candidate for Congress need not be a resident of the district in which he seeks election.

Roosevelt, who was refused the Democratic nomination by Tammany Hall, is running as the candidate of the Liberal and Four Freedoms parties. He faces Democratic and American Labor party opponents as well as McIntyre.

The special election in the normally Democratic district is to fill the seat of the late Rep. Sol Bloom.

G.O.P. to Continue Economy Fight

Washington, May 12 (AP)—Republican leaders said today they will carry on their fight to trim federal spending despite the feeling they took on the first major money bill passed by the Senate.

A measure appropriating $3,113,685,503 to finance the Treasury and Post Office Departments in the fiscal year starting July 1 was passed by the Senate late yesterday.

Final approval was given by voice vote after various Republican-backed maneuvers to force a 3 per cent cut in the total were defeated.

As passed by the Senate, the bill carries $40,256,000 more than the House voted. If the House refuses to accept the increase, efforts will be made by conferees from the two branches to work out a compromise.

Senator Bridges (R-N.H.) told reporters there will be no let-up in the reduction campaign despite the setback. He predicted better luck on others to come.

The Treasury post office measure was the first regular appropriation bill passed by the Senate in this session of Congress. The House has passed all the regular money bills for the coming fiscal year.

Senator Taft of Ohio, the G.O.P. policy chief in the Senate, also said he believed that advocates of trimming could show greater strength on other appropriation bills.

He told reporters that a meeting of Senate Republicans brought out some opposition to trying to trim post office funds because the department is expected to have an operating deficit of $400,000,000 in the fiscal year.

The Senate bill adds $1,045,181,100 to the Treasury Department—$17,576,000 more than the House voted—and $2,067,884,100 to the Post Office Department, an increase of $22,674,000 over the House amount.

Arabs Attack U. S. Consulate in Tripoli

Tripoli, Libya, May 11 (AP)—Rioting Arabs tore the United States flag from the American consulate here yesterday, and threw stones and iron balls at the windows.

They were demonstrating against a British-Italian plan to restore Tripoli to Italian trusteeship in 1951, which Arab leaders contend would throw "the Tripolitanian people to Italian loggers."

The mob—sometimes chanting "Russia! Russia!"—stoned the French consulate, one stone striking the consulate. Demonstrators gathered also at the British consulate, shouting "down with Bevin."

U. S. Consul Orray Taft, Jr., agreed not to fly the U. S. flag outside the consulate until the tension has eased.

The city was placed under curfew, and mobile British police units patrolled the streets.

Newkirk to Bid For State Meeting In '50 of Reservists

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk and a delegation of local reserve officers left today for Elmira where they will make a bid for the 1950 convention in this city of the Reserve Officers Association of the United States, Department of New York.

The delegates are Ernest A. Steuding, local public works superintendent, and Attorneys Herman Gottfried and Charles Gaffney. The alternates are Martin Petersen and George Will.

The state convention in Elmira is scheduled for May 13 and 14, and the place of the 1950 convention will be selected during the business session.

Mayor Newkirk, as an honorary guest, will extend an invitation to the association to meet in this city.

Attorney Gaffney said he had written all rural county chapters of the association asking their support in the Kingston bid to win next year's convention.

The leading wheat-producing state in 1948 was Kansas, which harvested about 19 per cent of the U. S. crop. Following in order were North Dakota, Oklahoma, Montana, Nebraska, Washington, Ohio, Texas, Colorado and South Dakota.

Convention Fund, Professional Men Needed by C. of C.

A bid for a larger convention fund and invitations to professional men to join the Kingston Chamber of Commerce are being considered by the organization, according to Albert Kurdt, executive secretary.

Raymond McAndrew, chairman of the convention committee, has suggested that additional funds are needed to promote Kingston as a convention city.

McAndrew cited that smaller communities spend large amounts than Kingston, places like Saratoga Springs and Lake Placid for placards, signs, bulletins and literature for the use of delegates.

In order to consider a higher budget, it is essential that the 600 membership goal be reached, McAndrew pointed out.

Lawrence J. MacAvoy, chairman of the membership committee, stressing that all citizens benefit by a well rounded Chamber of Commerce program, called upon professional people to join as an investment in community progress.

Melting Paraffin

To prevent metal cans of scouring powder from leaving stains on damp linoleum or enamel, dip the bottom of the can in melted paraffin. When it is cool and hard the paraffin coating will help against stains.

Do You Remember

by SOPHIE MILLER

Mrs. L. A. M. writes "A while back you mentioned the cement for the Brooklyn Bridge came from Ulster county. I have been waiting for you to say that the limestone for that bridge came not only from Ulster county but from Kingston. This, I believe was the fact. Some say it came from 'Joy's Woods' now Forest Park and others that it came from property now owned by Wiltwyck Rural Cemetery Assn. The latter is right. The late Luke Noone, who resided on Pearl street is supposed to have supplied the same." (I don't know what Brooklyn would have done without us, their delicious drinking water comes from Ulster county, their bluestone sidewalks, cement and now limestone all imported from our valley.)

Just received from A.P.C. various items from the "Old Landers." One from Mayor Kennedy's time—dated July 14, 1892 when the esteemed mayor gave as a gift to the people of Kingston the new glass-enclosed Kennedy Observatory in the tower of the city hall, built some 100 feet from the ground. It is said carpenter Thomas McKee was consulting the stonemason and platform from which a fine view of the city and surrounding scenery could be seen. Who remembers the observatory over the city hall?

This from an Oct. 28, 1901 item: When the Board of Trade succeeded in securing the shirt factory and laundry of James Fuller, son of the Hon. Isaiah Fuller from New York city, to Kingston by paying the removal expenses. It is said Fuller's payroll would be around $1,500 per week. The Board of Trade, it is said, has so far succeeded in bringing factories to Kingston which total about $15,000 a week in salaries.

From an April 29, 1908 item they describe a strike of some 100 workers on the Ashokan reservoir at Brown's Station when they demanded an increase of wages from $1.20 a day to $1.25 which was refused. Being all the workers were from out of town, the contracting firm brought them tickets and put them on the train. But at Olive Branch, some 30 of the strikers thought it over, left the train and came back to work.

Back in the gay 1880's it is said Mayor Stephens appointed Deputy Sheriff George Roach as special officer to prevent coasting on the Union avenue hill. That was in the month of January, and then came the blizzard of 1888, on Friday, February 13, remember?

From a Dec. 29, 1908 item there is the coverage of Kingston welcoming Company M back from Honolulu. They arrived home on Tuesday morning, December 28, 1908 with some 25,000 people assembled along the line of march from the ferry to St. James street. (More on Company M's arrival in a later column.)

KRUMVILLE

Krumville, May 11—"The Ladies' Aid will meet Friday, May 20, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Burgher. Mrs. Katie Davis spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. John Marshall and family of Olive Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Hoover were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Colven in Korkonkson Sunday.

The local school has a new scholar, Merle Connaughton, who entered on Monday.

The Cemetery Association has announced that dues for this year are now payable at the home of Mrs. Katie Davis, treasurer.

Several from here attended funeral services for Richard Dunn of Kingston. Mr. Dunn was well known here.

Pike, Menkes Will Teach at Students League This Year

Woodstock, May 11—When the Woodstock summer school, Art Students League, opens June 1, John Pike and Sigmund Menkes, both prominent local artists, will be included in the staff of instructors, for the first time. Other well-known local artists who will return again this season as instructors are Arnold Blumh, Paul Fienne and Fletcher Martin.

This year, instead of being divided into two periods and continuing through September, the Woodstock session will follow the New York schedule of June through August, with registration by the month. Tuition will be nominal.

The complete schedule of classes is as follows:

Five mornings a week, 9 to 12 o'clock, life drawing, painting and composition, by Arnold Blumh. Sculpture, wood carving, stone cutting, modeling in clay by Paul Fienne. Life drawing, painting and illustration by John Pike.

Five afternoons a week, 1 to 4 o'clock, life drawing, painting and composition by Fletcher Martin. Life drawing, painting and composition by Sigmund Menkes.

In a recent edition of the Art Students League News, brief biographical sketches of the Woodstock instructors are given as well as a description of Woodstock itself. Both are interesting.

Arnold Blumh, born in Mantoville, Minn., 1896, first came to the League in 1921 as the winner of an Out-of-Town Scholarship. Ten years later his paintings won prizes at both the San Francisco Art Association and California Palace of the Legion of Honor.

The following year he won the Harris prize at Chicago, and since then his work has been invited to every important national exhibition. It also is in the permanent collection of the Whitney and Metropolitan Museums, and in the museums of Cleveland, Detroit, Denver, and other cities. He and his wife, Doris Lee, spend their winters at Key West, Fla., and during summer are at their permanent home in Woodstock.

Paul Fienne, brother of the painter Ernest Fienne, was born in Elberfeld, Germany, and studied sculpture at the Beaux Arts School in New York. He also worked for a time as assistant to the late sculptor Gaston Lachaise. His work has been exhibited at most of the big national exhibitions, and may be seen in many private collections, in the Albany Art Historical Museum, and in the lobby of the New York Post Office. For the past three years he has limited himself to direct carving in stone, without the use of models. He is a member of the Art Advisory Committee to the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York and lives in Woodstock with his wife, Rosella Hartman.

Sigmund Menkes, born in Poland in 1896, studied at the University of Krakow and then in Paris before coming to America in 1935. In 1941 he won his first award in this country, a William A. Clark prize at the Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington, and six years later was awarded its first prize of $2,000. His paintings are included in most of the important annual exhibitions, and may be seen in the permanent collections of the Metropolitan, Brooklyn, and Philadelphia museums, and at the Walker Art Center in Minneapolis. The Woodstock Academy, and in the collections of the Encyclopedia Britannica and International Business Machines. He and his wife make Woodstock their home.

Without benefit of formal art training, Fletcher Martin's first exhibition assured him of success. He was born in Palsdale, Colo., in 1904, and in addition to painting pictures for most of the leading public collections (including the Metropolitan, Modern, and Whitney museums) he has been a ranch hand, a printer, a lumberjack, and a lightweight boxer with the Pacific fleet during World War I. During the recent war, Life magazine commissioned him to cover both the African theater and the Normandy campaign. He also has illustrated two Limited Edition books, "Tales of the Gold Rush" and "Mutiny on the Bounty," and has painted murals for the post offices of Lamesa, Tex., and Kellogg, Ia. He lives with his wife the year round in Woodstock.

Appears in Magazines

John Pike's paintings appear regularly in Colliers, Fortune, True, Redbook, and the Woman's Home Companion, as well as in galleries in Boston, New York, and Philadelphia. He believes that "a solid art background is of tremendous importance to the commercial illustrator." Born in Boston in 1911, he studied art under Charles Hawthorne and Richard Miller, and proceeded to apply his training in a variety of ways including four years of architectural design and advertising in the West Indies, and two years in Africa, Italy, and the Pacific with the army's psychological warfare section. His permanent home is in Woodstock where he lives with his wife and children.

It was in 1904 that the Art Students League first conducted permanent summer classes in landscape painting in oils and watercolors when Birge Harrison and John Carlson were the first instructors of the league's classes then held over a wagon shop located on the Tannery Brook.

"During the 44 years since that first summer class was taught," states the League News, "the other arts have also flourished in Woodstock, making it certainly the most unique of America's summer art colonies, as well as one of the most beautiful. About the time the league started its school, a number of writers were settling in a district to the southwest of the village known as "The Maverick" which had been bought by Harvey White, whose novel, "Quicksand," had been called one of America's six best by Theodore Dreiser. Today the residents still use the article "The" when referring to the district, one of seven settlements that make up the town of Woodstock.

It was in The Maverick that the Woodstock Sunday concert series began, which will conduct its 31st season this year, and it was here in the early 1920's that White built a theatre in which to produce his own and other original plays. That decade of Woodstock residents saw a succession of exciting performances, most of which have passed into theatrical limbo. The performers, however, are today very much alive and include Edward G. Robinson, Bette Davis, Helen Hayes, Dudley Diggs, and many others. By the mid 1930's five summer theatres were playing in Woodstock, including Richard Aldrich's Phoenix Theatre and Arthur Sircorn's Jivey Players. In 1939 Robert Elwyn who had leased The Maverick Theatre in 1931, built the Woodstock Theatre for the summer production of Broadway hits, which have since proven more popular to the residents than the early experimental plays.

But the painters and sculptors still predominate, as the membership of the 30-year-old Woodstock Art Association reveals. In addition to the League instructors are the following Woodstock residents, many of whom attended the Art Students League both in Woodstock and New York: Alexander Archipenko, Lucille Blanch, Paul Burlin, Herman Chervy, Edward Chavez, Peggy Dodds, Stuart Edie, Harvey Emrick, Alfio Faggi, Karl Fortless, Marion Greenwood, Philip Guston, Rosella Hartman, Nathaniel Kaz, Georgina Klitgaard, Yasuo Kuniyoshi, Sidney Laufman, Doris Lee, Eugene Ludins, Henry Mattson, Edward Millman, Anton Refregier, Andrew Ruelan, Judson Smith, Eugene Speicher, John W. Taylor, Dorothy Vagian, Carl Waters, and Donny Winters. We must add that this list includes a very small percentage of the total number of prominent artists here.

"On a mountain side overlooking the studios of many of these artists lives Hermon More, curator of the Whitney Museum of American Art, whose ticklish job it is to select, each year, from all over America, the paintings and sculpture for the Whitney's annual exhibition."

"What gives Woodstock its special character is the fact that most of these writers and artists are property owners instead of mere summer visitors. Woodstock frowns on tourists as such, though it accepts transient money gladly. There are no tourist cabins or auto camps, and a new 'shiny diner' is viewed with horror by the owners of the 100-year-old white buildings that line its shaded Main street. (They like its five-cent coffee, however.)"

"A town supervisor, at present Kenneth Wilson, former League student) conducts municipal affairs, unaided except by state troopers and a lone traffic policeman in summer. Between spring and Thanksgiving, many of the persons here are busy painting, carving and writing much of the work that will be exhibited, published and produced the following winter, from New York to Hollywood."

Enrollment for the summer classes is limited to 200 and those interested are requested to apply at once to Miss Rosina A. Florio, registrar, at 215 West 57th street, New York. For many weeks now, E. Leslie Waid, president, and Stewart Klenis, director, have made frequent trips here getting ready for the opening of the school and lining up living quarters for the students.

She'll Be Dorothy Schiff

New York, May 11 (AP)—The editor and publisher of the New York Post Home News announced today that henceforth she will be known as Dorothy Schiff "to avoid confusion." She and her husband, Ted O. Thackrey, are estranged. She said when he resigned last month as editor of the newspaper, he is publisher of the forthcoming New York Compass, a tabloid morning newspaper appearing next Monday. She is the granddaughter of Jacob H. Schiff, the daughter of Mortimer L. Schiff.

The first recorded strike in the United States occurred in 1786 when Philadelphia printers walked out demanding a $6 weekly wage.

Drug Doubles Mental Recoveries

New York, May 12 (AP)—Use of the drug histamine in treatment of mental illness just about doubles recoveries, according to a report from Creedmore State Hospital on Long Island.

Doctors, who have been experimenting with the drug for four years, announced yesterday that they had found it has highly beneficial effects when used alone, or in conjunction with other treatments.

The report said the drug, which lowers blood pressure and stimu-lates gastric juice, does its work partly by increasing the flow of blood to the brain.

Best results are obtained when the drug is used along with electric or insulin shock, the report said. It doubles the number of electric shock recoveries. It also brings recovery when electricity and insulin are used without shock, the report said.

The report, made by doctors
John H. W. Van Cattaen and Arthur M. Sackler, said:

"We can now say that the number of patients requiring hospitalization can be markedly reduced by proper use of non-convulsive histamine, alone, and in conjunction with sub-cutaneous insulin and electric shock."

Many patients, who without histamine would have required hospitalization, were able to continue work during treatments, the report added.

Ford Peace Talks Are in Third Day; 100,000 Are Idle

Detroit, May 12 (AP)—Peace talks in the Ford strike moved into their third day today as the company's idle employees approached 100,000.

With 90,000 already off the job,
there was a possibility that Ford's entire production force of 106,000 might soon be affected.

The C.I.O. United Auto Workers' "speed-up" strike of 65,000 men began one week ago today.

For today's negotiations (10 a.m. E.S.T.) Ford pulled in an expert production expert as the company and union tried to square their differences in the operations rate dispute.

He was Del S. Harder, vice president in charge of manufacturing operations.

After yesterday's talks Ford admitted that its "peace offering" was having less success than had been hoped for it.

"But we are plugging along," said John S. Bugas, head of the company's negotiators.

Meanwhile U.A.W. President
Walter Reuther intended to skip today's meeting in order to keep an engagement with C.I.O. President Phil Murray in Pittsburgh.

The U.A.W. did not disclose the purpose of Reuther's trip. However, a union source said, the meeting had been arranged prior to the Ford strike and would not necessarily concern it.

A chance was developing today for an early return to work of 33,000 Chrysler workers.
Chrysler laid off an additional

3,000 last night but simultaneously a supplier's tieup blamed for the layoffs was being settled.

At the start of the week
Chrysler began reducing production because of a shortage of window vents from Motor Products Corp.

A dispute over production speeds at the latter company was involved in a company charge of

"slow-down" and a U.A.W.-C.I.O. charge of "lockout."

Management and U.A.W. Local 203 said a time study of production had been agreed upon.

Area Rent Director Explains Points About 1949 Control

Significant rights are given landlords, tenants and veterans in the 1949 rent control program, according to Charles C. Hoag, area rent director, who has returned from an intensive three-day course on the new rent control law.

The special conference, attended by local rent officials from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware, was held May 9 to 11 in New York City.

Through a series of work sessions, conducted by Housing Expediter Thelma E. Woods, and other representatives of the office of the housing expediter, we were able to gain a clear picture of the new provisions of the 1949 act," Hoag said. "As a result, we are better prepared now to extend to all landlords, tenants and veterans the benefits to which they are entitled under the 1949 Housing and Rent Act."

The regional conference devoted considerable time to methods of quickly handling landlords' petitions for aid in operating their properties, Hoag said. "These methods will be followed in the local office which serves Dutchess, Orange, Ulster and Rockland counties. Another session was devoted to the rights of tenants and landlords in administrative proceedings. Under the 1949 regulations, either the tenant or landlord may appeal any rent office order on eviction or rent adjustment which was issued at the request of the other party.

Among the other new provisions of the rent control program studied at the regional conference are these:

1. The right of the housing expediter to control evictions.
2. The right of the housing expediter to seek injunctions and to sue for treble damages in cases of rent overcharges and other willful violations of regulations.
3. Responsibilities of the rent advisory board in making studies and recommendations on rent control or decontrol of areas, general rent increases, and in conducting hearings requested by landlord or tenant groups.
4. Recontrolling accommodations which were decontrolled under previous legislations, including trailers and trailer spaces, units not rented for any continuous 24-month period between February 1, 1945, and March 30, 1948, and units decontrolled when a voluntary rent increase was terminated prior to April 1, 1948.
5. Extension of veterans preference to additional types of new housing construction, and for each re-sale or re-renting.

Vaudeville Acts
Feature Auction

Something different in audience participation shows — a comic auction — with Jackie Bright, the "Krazy Auctioneer" of the National Broadcasting Company radio network officiating, will top the five-act professional vaudeville show at the Broadway Theatre on Friday and Saturday, May 13-14.

Bright, who for 18 weeks had his own Sunday night half-hour show "Try and Do It" on N.B.C., will give away merchandise and cash at the one matinee and two evening shows, to the first people who can get up on stage with his requests for a weird assortment of odd articles — ranging from hair pins to love letters, suspenders to gold headed toothpicks, or can outdo others in the audience by offering articles of apparel for the item Bright puts on the block.

In addition, the semi-finals for the winners of the first five weeks in the "Mr. Song of 1949" contest will be held preceding the vaudeville acts.

Another headliner on the show will be Neal Stanley, good looking young man and comedian, whose impressions range from Hollywood figures to political personalities. He will come to the Walter Reade circuit direct from Loew's Capitol Theatre in Washington, where he is currently concluding a long tour with Woody Herman's orchestra. Singing will be supplied by the Dale Sisters, a team of pretty girls from Canada. They are making their first American tour after scoring a success in Canadian radio and supper club work.

Unusual acrobatics will be provided by the young man and woman team of Romaine and Babbette. Newcomers from the mid-west, they will present dance and acrobatic routine entitled "Acrobatic a-la-carte." A spectacular closing to the show will be furnished by Rex Weber, singing star of many recent Broadway shows. Presenting an act entitled "A Vocal Illusion," Weber displays an amazing voice range, being able to go from a clear soprano all the way down to a resounding base.

Motor Manners
By Emily Post
(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

Mrs. Post's "Motor Manners" is made available to the readers of this newspaper by the National Highway Users Conference, as a public service.

Keep to the Right
Q. Why should a polite driver keep to the right?
A. Keeping to the right is a recognized American highway custom. Therefore, it is well to develop the habit of staying on the right side of the road even when there are no other cars in sight.

Entering a Car
Q. Is it proper for the driver to get behind the wheel from the street side of the car?
A. This common practice is discourteous to other drivers. People who enter a car from the street side are actually being rude to other drivers. Either they force passing cars to stop and tie up other traffic, or they may cause drivers to swerve suddenly into another lane.

Such thoughtlessness can lead to a collision between passing vehicles. Many drivers further more do not expect to encounter pedestrians mid-block or walking out from behind parked cars. In some cities the law forbids this dangerous practice. Courtesy forbids it everywhere.

Printed copies of Emily Post's "Motor Manners" may be secured by writing to The Freeman, c/o The Bell Syndicate, Inc., 229 West 43rd Street, New York, N. Y., and enclosing five cents to cover handling and postage. (Copyright, 1949, by National Highway Users Conference).

Three Inmates Escape

Chillicothe, O., May 12 (AP)—Three inmates of the federal reformatory here escaped yesterday by walking away from a work gang on the prison reservation. Prison officials identified one of them as William R. Blackwell, 18, of Lindenhurst, N. Y., serving a two year sentence for auto theft.

The inmates had been working on a housing project for prison personnel when they fled, officials reported. They were trailed through several fields, but their tracks were lost on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks west of the prison reservation.

GIVE OVEN MEAL SPRING DELICACY

Pineapple chicken, mushrooms, lima beans, squash—all baked in one.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

All baked in the oven in a matched set of ovenware at the same time—chicken with pineapple and mushroom garnish, lima beans and seasoned squash. Not only sounds good, but cuts down kitchen time—and these days that means more time for spring outdoors. So try it.

Baked Pineapple Chicken—4 servings

Three to four-pound frying chicken, 1 cup fat, 2 table-spoons finely diced onions, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon ginger, 2 cups well-seasoned chicken broth, 1/2 cup crushed pineapple, 1 teaspoon kitchen butter.

Wash chicken thoroughly and dry carefully. Cut in serving size pieces. Melt fat in large frying pan over moderate heat. Add chicken and brown lightly on all sides. Remove browned chicken to 12-quart casserole. Place onion in frying pan and cook 1 minute. Stir in flour, salt and ginger. Add chicken broth, pineapple and kitchen butter.

Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens. Pour sauce over chicken and bake, covered, until chicken is tender, about 45 minutes. Half an hour before the chicken is done place seasoned squash, lima beans and the contents of a 6-ounce can of fortified mushrooms in small casserole. Cover and heat in oven with chicken. When ready to serve, just remove covers, transfer to a suitable tray and place on the table.

Looking for a main dish lunch—eat salad? The answer is easy and very delicious.

A Roast Bean and Corn Salad (Serves 6-8)

One package cut green beans, 1 package cut corn, partially de-fatted, 2 table-spoons butter, 1 table-spoon chopped onion, 1 package cut into strips, 1 cup chopped green pepper, optional, 1/2 cup chopped celery, 2 hard-boiled eggs sliced, salt, pepper, French dressing.

Cook beans according to instructions on package. Melt butter in heavy saucepan that has a tight-fitting lid; add frozen corn, the beans, onion, de-fatted corn, enough to break apart cover and cook slowly over low heat for 2 minutes.

Remove cover, continue cooking, stirring constantly until excess moisture has evaporated, about 1 minute. Combine ingredients, season to taste. Add dressing, serve hot or cold.

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

America's Card Authority

(Written for NEA Service)

To get the full benefit of today's lesson hand I want you to cover up all of the cards excepting the South hand.

The correct opening lead is the most discussed subject among experts. Recently I gave you several hands in which I explained that quite often you can figure out the correct lead by analyzing which is the wrong lead.

Take today's hand. The contract of three no trump was doubled by North. This calls for the opening lead of the first suit bid by dummy. In this case a diamond. East has redoubled which says to his partner, "Don't worry I can take care of the diamonds."

You start to analyze, maybe the spade is the correct lead. However, North did not double West's three spade bid. Therefore, he could not have spades. You now move to the heart suit. When West bid one diamond, if North had hearts, he had an opportunity to show them at the one level, so that eliminates the heart lead. Next comes the club suit. East bid one club and over his partner's bid of one diamond he jumped to three clubs. There is no question but that East's three no trump bid is based on clubs, so that definitely eliminates the club lead.

You are now back to the diamond suit and by process of elimination you find that the only lead you can make is a diamond. Now should you lead a small or a high diamond? You would like to make a lead telling your partner what to return to you, so you use the suit-directing play and lead the ten of diamonds. When your partner wins the diamond trick, he will know by your lead that you are asking for the return of the highest suit, a spade.

This is the only lead that will defeat the contract and your side will win four diamonds and the ace of spades.

Home Run Does It

Plymouth, Mass., May 12 (AP)—A home run "drove" four prisoners out of the Plymouth House of Correction yesterday. When a guard opened the gate to retrieve a ball that had been batted over the fence by a softball player, the prisoners dashed out. They were headed for the woods of Myles Standish Reservation when last seen. Sheriff Charles H. Robbins said the guard, Robert Woodward, was at a disadvantage because guards are not allowed to carry guns since the killing of a prisoner in an attempted break several years ago.

Huston Is Given 'One World' Award

New York, May 12 (AP)—Film Director John Huston, winner of the 1949 "One World" award of a flight around the world, plans to use the trip to make a documentary movie to further the cause of international understanding.

He disclosed his plan last night at the "One World" award committee's annual dinner, where he was cited for the award by Radio Writer Norman Corwin, who won the globe-girdling flight in 1946. Huston said the film would seek to "fashion a portrait of man in the aggregate."

Scientist Albert Einstein, the late New York Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia and Conductor Arturo Toscanini were previous winners of the award. It was established in 1944 as a memorial to the late Wendell L. Willkie.

Willkie's son, Philip, who was scheduled to speak, did not appear at the dinner. He issued a statement saying the award "is representative of the things my father stood for and admired."

Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting U.N. mediator in Palestine, was given a citation by the committee. He told the group: "The settlement of the Palestine dispute and the lifting of the Berlin blockade show that the United Nations way is the only way of settling international disputes."

The "One World" press award was presented to Bartley C. Crum, publisher of the now defunct New York Star, for his "valiant efforts to perpetuate the tradition of fighting journalism."

To Ira A. Hirschmann, businessman and author, went the award for public service in the field of radio and music.

Other citations were made to Dr. Herbert V. Evatt, president of the U.N. General Assembly; Dr. Oswaldo Aranha, foreign minister of Brazil and former general assembly president; Moshe Sharett, Israeli U.N. representative, and Count Carlo Sforza, Italian foreign minister.

DON HYATT

Guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association, Tuesday, May 17, at Gardiner will be Don Hyatt, safety training supervisor of the Executive Department, Division of Safety, State of New York.

Secretary Fred Harder stressed in his meeting announcement that all members should hear Hyatt's talk and take part in the discussion relative to the 14th annual county convention. Copies of the new by-laws will be distributed.

Hyatt, formerly of Kingston, has delivered his safety talk to a number of fire organizations throughout New York state, and the information he imparts is considered helpful to all volunteers. He has been employed as safety engineer, supervisor and inspector by some of the nation's leading industries: duPont Ordnance Works, Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., Goodyear Synthetic Rubber Corp., Sun Oil, U. S. Rubber Co., B. F. Goodrich Co., and has worked in government laboratories.

He is a brother of Harold A. Hyatt, a member of Wicks Hose Company, who was instrumental in procuring him as speaker for the meeting which is scheduled for 8 p. m. at the Gardiner Airport.

Employees Return to Jobs

Scranton, Pa., May 12 (AP)—Striking employees of the Scranton Transit Company returned to their jobs today, providing the Lackawanna valley's 400,000 commuters with trolley and bus service for the first time in 39 days. Members of the C.I.O. Streetcar Workers Union voted at a mass meeting last night to accept a new contract calling for a wage boost of six cents an hour and a raise in monthly pension rates from $55 to $65. Under the new agreement, the company's operators receive $1.27 an hour and maintenance men from $1.33 to $1.43. The company's 400 workers walked out last April.

Bronx Man Arrested

Arthur LeRoy Jackson, 28, of the Bronx was lodged in the county jail here Wednesday night by U. S. Secret Service agents who revealed he was charged with forging a U. S. Treasury check. Woodstock News

Stars Mock Trial Delights Audience

Woodstock, May 12—The Town Hall has been the scene of many trials during the years but never has one been heard to equal that of Brown vs. Brown as presented by Clinton Chapter, O.E.S., Tuesday evening, when a capacity audience followed with great glee the progress of a suit for separate maintenance brought against her husband by Elizabeth Brown, ably portrayed by Lela Williams, West Hurley.

The trouble began when Mrs. Brown's mother played by Mrs. Lamont V. Simpkins, a sister and an aunt came to make their home with the Brown family. Brown, characterized by Ruth Best, reached a point where he declared himself and refused to continue to live in "this blasted hen roost," nor would he maintain the home until the following winter.

Rhoda Klippel, playing the part of the district attorney in the court scene, practically stopped the show with her battle axe tactics and sly remarks about the attorney for the defense being "just an old maid." The attorney was portrayed by Doris Hui y. Edna DeWitt did a fine job as the protective and irate mother whose son was being abused. Neva Shultis as the judge showed unusual capabilities in keeping the situation in hand.

The 12 witnesses contributed to the amusement of the spectators too by involving many of the local business people in their testimony.

Long before curtain time, the hall was practically filled as the doors to the auditorium had been opened at 7 p. m. in anticipation of a large audience.

Crafts Guild Is To Open May 27th

Woodstock, May 12—The Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen will open its 10th season for the summer shop on Friday, May 27. With this announcement, the Guild has also released information regarding its sales during the past five years. The gross sales in that period amounted to $43,267.66. Of this total, 30 per cent, or $13,041.11 has been paid to the consignors.

The Guild is a non-profit organization maintained for Ulster county craftsmen. The number of fine craftsmen in the area has increased considerably over the years through the craft classes, the educational department of the Guild. These classes have added interest and value to the individual students and the standard of workmanship has reached a much higher level.

It would be difficult to estimate the number of working hours which are contributed annually by the volunteer corps of the Guild. This important factor coupled with the exceptional quality of the craftsmanship of the consignors, has made the Guild an important, active, civic organization which has enriched the community both culturally and financially.

Around the Village

Woodstock, May 12—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gardner are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their first child, a daughter, Judith Marion, in the Benedictine Hospital, Sunday, May 8.

Mrs. James Marabelli, of Rye, and son Jamie, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Eva Waterman.

The Eugene Speichers arrived Tuesday for the season. Upon their arrival they were dinner

Anita Stallforth's "Candy Cottage" has been leased by Fred Hleddal, New York artist.

Albert Graesser, architect, is extending his usual week-end visit with his family, to complete plans, specifications and estimates for the proposed new school. As soon as this information is available, the trustees will arrange an appointment with the department of education in Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. VanPraag of New York have leased the cottage on Chestnut Hill road owned by Mrs. Nelson Parker. Mr. VanPraag is a writer.

The work of rebuilding the house and store, owned by Carl Cousins and which was partially destroyed by fire recently, seems to be in progress. The store was occupied by Riley's at the time of the fire and included restaurant, bus terminal and newspapers, etc. During the period of construction, Riley's are serving the public at the Art Gallery.

Yasuo Kuniyoshi is expected to be art director at the University in Berkeley, Calif., during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Waterous have leased the former Robeson place on the Glasco Turnpike.

Mrs. Henry Barclay has returned from St. Augustine, Fla., to her home on Orchard Lane.

Friends of Mrs. Christine Dillon were delighted to see her in Woodstock this past week-end. She has recovered from her recent hip injury and is able to get about. With her were Colonel and Mrs. Stuart Grant.

Cooperative Will Open Friday, 20th

Woodstock, May 12—Crafts Cooperative, Inc. will officially open in its new location on Maple Lane Friday, May 20. In the meantime, the shop is open for the benefit of consignors each afternoon from 1 to 5 p. m.

Residents of Ulster county interested in becoming consignors to Crafts Cooperative are requested to present their items without delay so as to allow time for the jury to pass on them before the official opening date. The items which will be on display at the cooperative include ceramics, linens, weaving, rugs, jewelry, leather, trays, needlework, cards, and homemaker foods.

For consignors, a small membership and shop fee will be charged and a nominal commission on sales.

Released on Bail

Russell E. Bollen, 29, of Accord, was arrested at his home Wednesday afternoon by County Investigator Clayton Vredenburg and County Identification Officer Leonard Belmont on a third degree assault charge preferred by Robert Schmidt, also of Accord. Arraigned before Justice of the Peace Charles Hasbrouck of Stoneridge, Bollen pleaded innocent and was released on $25 bail for hearing May 18 at 8 p. m. The charge grew out of an alleged fight in an Accord store, Vredenburg reported.

More than $27 billions of U. S. Savings Bonds have been sold since the end of the war.

Status of Women in the Near East Described By Judge Kenyon at College Club Meeting

The conditions in the Near East, especially in regard to women, were discussed by Judge Dorothy Kenyon of New York city before the open meeting of Kingston College Women's Club Wednesday night. Judge Kenyon, a prominent woman lawyer of New York is a former municipal judge, and is now serving on the United Nations Committee for the Status of Women.

Three major factors in the Near East situation outlined by Judge Kenyon were: "the State of Israel is here to stay; 800,000 Arab refugees left their home and all of their possessions in Palestine and are now in Arabia; the entire area is by nature, one economic unit interdependent upon the other—Israel itself cannot possibly exist unless it is surrounded by states that are sound economic units."

The problems are far too big a job for the United States or any one nation alone, Judge Kenyon explained. She believes that the United Nations should take the opportunity to work on solutions to these problems because the conditions in the Near East will eventually affect the entire world. Judge Kenyon through her work on the U.N. committee is particularly concerned with the lives of the women. She remarked that women represent more than 50 per cent of the world's human beings and named them "the submerged majority." She proceeded to explain some of the differences in amount of liberty and living standards of women around the world. The committee became concerned about the women of the Near East as one of the dark areas on the earth's surface.

So the Near East was chosen by the committee as its first study case. Following an invitation to visit Lebanon, the delegates took the ideas of women's right to vote, equal pay for equal work, equal education opportunities, more advanced health standards and many if the other freedom rights enjoyed by women in other parts of the world, to these women of the Near East. She stressed the fact that they were actually only 30 hours flying time from New York.

As a result of consultations with leading women of the country and the government, the right of women to vote has been seriously considered and granted to some extent in Syria and Lebanon. Also in Greece the government has decided to allow the women to vote, Judge Kenyon noted.

Woman's suffrage is the first step in getting women interested in the government and the world outside their homes, Judge Kenyon believes. Education and all of the other equalities work along at the same time. She was particularly concerned with the health problems in Lebanon and the countries she

HAPPINESS MIGHT BE AT STAKE

In answering this letter I am hoping "she" will think twice about what she's doing. A man writes: "I'm just a mere man who doesn't know much about accepted rules. But I do have feelings and I'd like to know if certain of these are justified. When I gave my fiancée her ring she put her former engagement ring from the man from whom she is divorced, on her right hand and my ring on her left. I didn't think she should continue to wear the former one, but she said that there was no feeling connected with it and she would wear it simply as any other diamond ring. So she wears both rings. I'd like your opinion."

Consideration of your feelings should be of great importance to her. If you didn't mind, then she very well might wear the ring on the other hand, but if you let her know it is distressing to you, I doubt that she will continue wearing it.

Very Special Thanks

Dear Mrs. Post: We've just received a picture postcard from a vacation spot, sent by a bride to thank us for our wedding present which she did not have time to thank us for before the wedding. Is such thank-you sufficient?

Answer: A few sincere words of thanks written in the bride's own handwriting is the principal requirement, and it seems to me that to have written you while on her honeymoon was certainly very appreciative.

Repaying Employer's Hospitality
Dear Mrs. Post: How can an employee and his wife repay the kindnesses of Mr. and Mrs. Employer, who invited them once to a restaurant and once to their house?

Answer: In most situations, it is not exacted that an employee make any return for an employer's invitations unless a special opportunity happens to present itself. When the thought of making a return becomes a "problem," this is evidence that no return would be suitable. On the other hand, if the employer and

Verdi's Opera Will Be Given Next Week

"La Traviata," one of Verdi's greatest operas, will be presented by the Boston Grand Opera Company at Kingston High School Auditorium Wednesday, May 18, at 8:30 p. m. The presentation will be sponsored by the Kingston College Women's Club.

Light and shade prevail in the libretto of "La Traviata," which is far more brilliant in construction and exposition than the average norm in grand opera. The musical tragedy is based on the world-famous play, "Camille," the Lady of the Camellias, founded on the book by the younger Alexander Dumas, under the influence of the French school of romantic literature. From instrumental preludes, through exciting interludes, arias, duets, and ensembles the taxing demands that require singing and acting at its best—all are reasons for the popularity of the work.

For the local presentation, the Boston Grand Opera Company will star Leonora Corona as guest artist, and a cast of talented singers accompanied by the Boston Grand Opera Company's own orchestra.

Seats are currently on sale at the popular prices of $1.00, $2.00, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $7.00, $8.00, $9.00, $10.00, $12.00, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00, $25.00, $30.00, $35.00, $40.00, $45.00, $50.00, $55.00, $60.00, $65.00, $70.00, $75.00, $80.00, $85.00, $90.00, $95.00, $100.00.

officials have been invited to attend the banquet. There will be several acts of entertainment and the closing date for reservations is Friday, May 13.

Chester Wager, 44, of Walkkill was admitted to Kingston Hospital late Wednesday afternoon for treatment of a leg injury. Information available at the hospital indicated that the injury was suffered while the Walkkill man was at work.

Runaway Horse Is Caught by Police

The horse of the Kingston Horse Mart, Inc., 2 Field Court, which got about town on a freedom jaunt of more than 24 hours, is back in its stable today.

Officers Edward Leonard and Raymond Wells reported at 8 p. m. Wednesday that they had located the horse, but have no way of holding it. This was in the vicinity of Ulster avenue extension where it was last seen yesterday.

The horse got away early Tuesday night, went out Stephen street toward West Chester, and apparently from there did a bit of cross-country running, evading a half dozen local policemen and men from the horse market.

A police call last night to the horse market recommended approaching the run-away with "bait and carrot," and as a result the field day ended.

Two Jurors Needed At Hudson Trial

Hudson, N. Y., May 12 (AP)—The eighth day of jury selection for the murder trial of two young cousins ended this noon, with two jurors and two alternates still to be seated.

Richard Harvell, 18, of Hudson and Lawrence W. Allgood, 20, of Union, N. J., are charged with first degree murder in the robbery-slitting last Nov. 21 of Martin M. Kittell, 48, operator of a Hudson dry-cleaning establishment.

Of 50 veniremen who reported this morning, 26 were excused. Six were examined but none was seated.

Justice Isadore Bookstein recessed the state Supreme Court session until tomorrow morning to permit the attorneys to attend an appellate division session in Albany.

A session last night also produced no additional jurors.

Predict Battle

Washington, May 12 (AP)—House Labor Committee Democrats were called together today (1 p. m. Mid-Hudson Cemetery Officials Association

At a meeting Monday at the Ulster County Court House, cemetery officials of Ulster, Dutchess, and Orange counties formed a regional organization to be known as "The Mid-Hudson Cemetery Officials Association."

The purpose of this association is to promote the advancement of practical knowledge in the operation and maintenance of cemeteries, and to secure the advantages to be obtained by mutual cooperation.

The officers elected were: President, LeRoy Crosswell, superintendent of Montpelier Cemetery, Kingston; vice-president, Walter Kaibie, superintendent of Cedar Hill Cemetery, Newburgh; secretary-treasurer, William H. Howell, superintendent of Wappingers Falls Cemetery; Wappingers Falls.

The meeting was attended by 35 cemetery officials from the three counties and from that group there is a membership of 20.

Who's Who in Jersey

Trenton, N. J., May 12 (AP)—Who's going to lead New Jersey's Democrats, now that Hague is down and out? And how about the gubernatorial chances of E. W. H. Wene, heretofore considered by many a good bet to dump Governor Christie's Republican administration? Those are some of the countless unsolved questions that buzzed through the state's Democratic leaders today.

Stunned by the defeat of Frank Hague's once invincible Democratic machinery in Jersey City Tuesday, state leaders agreed unanimously that a meeting was in order for the near future to determine the party's course.

Still Wants Repeal

Washington, May 12 (AP)—President Truman said today he still stands for full repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act. He said that he had not discussed concessions with labor leaders and that his own position is well known. Throughout the presidential campaign last fall and since, the President has called for repeal of the whole Taft-Hartley Act and restoration of the old Wagner Labor law with minor revisions.

Intends No Purge

Washington, May 12 (AP)—President Truman said today he is not interested in trying to purge Congress—that the people will take care of that. He made that observation in a news conference discussion touched off by questions about his reported assertion that there are too many Byrds in Congress.

Pledges U.N. Support

Washington, May 12 (AP)—President Truman pledged his administration anew today to full support of the United Nations despite "disappointment" at that organization's failure to achieve greater security for the world.

He took a report on the U.N. which placed blame for the failure on Russia. At the same time he cited the development of the North Atlantic Treaty, now awaiting Senate ratification, as a means of bolstering the world organization. Of America's role in the U.N., Mr. Truman said: "We have taken a lead in the fields of international relations. We can be proud of what we have done."

Police, Firemen Ask Raise, Also City Workers

Newburgh, May 12—Firemen were reported ready to circulate petitions for salary increases similar to those passed around in recent days by the police of the city.

Concerning their petitions the police said they would have signatures well over the required 10 per cent of the city vote at the last gubernatorial election.

At the same time employees of other city departments were preparing a request to be submitted to the city council Monday, asking incorporation of the present $300 cost of living bonus in their regular salary and a further 10 per cent raise in pay, none of which would be sought directly of the voters.

Firemen answered a false alarm sounded from a box at Clinton avenue and St. James street at 12:21 a. m. today.

Stamford Nips Colonials on Errors by Matzer and Elko in Ninth, 5-3

Spotty Defense Decides Close Battle; Cashion Is Victim

They sold "Old Bobo" down the river last night at municipal stadium. Bobo Cashion, pitching magnificently in relief of starter Francisco Sostre, was the victim of a ninth inning Colonial collapse that robbed him of victory he deserved.

Instead it was marked in the record books as a 5-3 defeat, the Colonials' seventh loss in eight starts. They travel to the hinterlands tonight to open a two-game series in Bristol and then return to municipal stadium for a week-end series against the leading Bridgeport Bees.

This is how the faithful frigid few saw the lurid details of the ninth inning collapse:

Manager Joe Glenn bats for Frank Piccerelli a wild right hander who has miraculously survived a dozen bases on balls. Glenn lashes a long drive to deep center and Johnny Elenchin makes a beautiful one-handed running catch.

Pat With D.P.'s
Pavone slashed a humpback liner to right for a single. Pavone slaps a perfect D.P. grounder to McNamara who comes up with the ball and fires to Ralph Matzer. But wait, Matzer drops it. All hands are safe. Callahan bounces a hit off Pete Elko's chest in third base but Elko is guilty of a rock when he can't make up his mind to tag third base or throw to first. Result—all hands safe.

Stein blasts another double play to Elko who knocks off a runner at second. Pavone scoring, but Stein is safe. Scotty Koperski then lashes a solid single to right scoring Callahan to make it 5-3. That was the ball game.

Despite Piccerelli's unbelievable wildness he issued a dozen walks—the Colonials had to rely on four walks and a timely single by Manager Julie Laviano to pick up their three runs in the third. They never seriously threatened after that.

Frank Piccerelli, the Stamford starter, walked a dozen batters and enjoyed phenomenal success in extricating himself from trouble. He doled out only four hits but the Colonials had more scoring chances than a fourth offender.

Laviano Comes Through
As a matter of fact, it required four walks and a clutch single by Manager Laviano to account for Kingston's three markers in the third. The wild right hander walked O'Dell, Elko, Rodriguez and Matzer to force in a run. Then Manager Laviano, still a pretty fair clutch hitter, rifled a shot past shortstop Santiago to drive in Elko and Rodriguez.

Kingston might have won the game in the sixth but for some questionable third base coaching strategy. Johnny Elenchin lashed a terrific blast over the right fielder's head for an easy triple. When he was sent in foolishly to try for the circuit he was a dead duck by two yards at the plate.

But in spite of all the hits and runs nothing could undo the four damaging miscues by those two normally reliable gentlemen—Ralph Matzer and Pete Elko.

Francisco Sostre, the Colonial starter, was nipped for two runs in the first and then retired with a sore arm. With two outs, Callahan singled, Stein walked, Koperski drove in the first tally and Elko's hobble accounted for the second.

Russo walked and completed the circuit on an infield out, Santiago's scratch hit off McNamara's glove and Piccerelli's ground single to center in the sixth inning to create the 3-3 tie.

Cashion permitted only four hits in seven innings up to the ninth. Three of the Stamford runs were unearned. Sostre's arm ailment is not serious. Manager Laviano yanked him when he didn't flash any stuff. Second baseman Eugene who murdered Kingston the night before stole a base hit from "Diggs" O'Dell with a spectacular stop in the first. Umpire Syby was in hot water with both managers and the players all night long on strikes and balls decision. He forgot the count on Callahan in the third and a merry rhabarb followed. Elenchin continued his long range slugging with a powerful blast to right center for three bases. And came up with two more brilliant plays, a trap on Stein's liner in the third and a 400-foot running catch on Glenn's pinch drive in the ninth. Laviano made a nice catch on Callahan's pop foul near the bleacher fence. Two breaks might have won the game for Kingston. Sending Elenchin into home on his triple was questionable strategy. Then in the seventh Pete Elko drove a tremendous shot to the left center field bleachers 400 feet away. It would have been a cinch homer with the picket fence up. Tonight—on the road in Bristol. Bridgeport here Saturday and Sunday.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROUNDUP

By JACK HAND, Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe Kuhel, the amateur (1) magician who manages Washington, just pulled a ninth rabbit out of his hat.

Nine straight wins by any Washington club, especially the lack-lustre 1949 version, call for an explosive mixture of voodoo charms and black magic. Mr. Kuhel must be a pro.

It's been years since Kuhel did his card tricks in public but he never unveiled a masterpiece like this one. Even his best friends refuse to believe their eyes.

Kuhel's sagging Senators started west on their first road trip, 10 days ago eight games below .500. They had won only three of 14. Even the woe-begone St. Louis Browns were ahead of them in the league standings.

16 Top Golfers Open in Goodall Round Robin Play

New Rochella, N. Y., May 12 (AP)—Fifteen of this country's hottest professional golfers, carefully chosen off their recent tournament records, and Bobby Locke, the South African putting wizard, were to tie into one another today in the opening round of the Goodall round robin event at Wykagyl.

This is the links infant thought up by Elmer Ward, a men's clothing tycoon from Cincinnati, who wanted to see a small but select group of par-busters battle it out in an event that was different. He got what he wanted.

Besides Locke, the 15 who joined the conflict today for first prize of $3,000 and total cash of $15,000 were Herman Barron, last year's winner; Sam Snead, Byron Nelson, Lloyd Mangrum, Cary Middlecoff, Vic Ghezzi, Fred Haas, Jr., Jimmy Demaret, Clayton Hearner, Chick Harbert, Johnny Palmer, Skip Alexander, Jim Turnesa, Bob Hamilton and Dutch Harrison.

Locke Against Field
Off the last two Goodalls, it happened to be strictly a case of Locke versus the "rest," as they would say in England. The rather dour visitor won it two years ago, hands down, and he alone was able to chase Barron right to the wire last year.

The South African would especially like to win this one, as the men he will be playing against have again barred him from their big tournament, the National P.G.A., starting May 25 at Richmond. He is burned, and he also is at the crest of his game.

The sponsors have made two changes in the Goodall, both calculated to help prevent the official scorekeeper from frothing at the mouth. They are playing this time in foursomes, instead of threesomes, and they are basing the results of each round on medal instead of match scores.

That should make it comparatively simple. If the individual scores in a foursome are, say, 70, 71, 72 and 73, then the low man will have a "plus" score of 6, the high man a "minus" of 6. At the end of five rounds, during which each entrant plays 15 "matches," the man with the highest "plus" count wins. The man with a 71 would have a "plus two," yielding a point to the 70 but gaining points on the other two.

One round was scheduled today, two tomorrow, and one each on Saturday and Sunday. Such great crowds followed the stars around a year ago that the New Rochelle Hospital Fund realized $15,070 from the net receipts.

Louis Outfit Seeks To Control T. of C.

New York, May 12 (AP)—The new Joe Louis-Madison Square Garden outfit is making a bid for complete control of bigtime boxing.

The latest move of the sprawling enterprise, which last week bought out Mike Jacobs' Twentieth Century Club, is to gobble up the Tournament of Champions.

Another meeting in a series of negotiation talks was to be staged today. Out of it may come a showdown in the new corporation's effort to absorb its last big rival.

Two major stockholders of the T-of-C, George Kletz and Lawrence Lowman, announced yesterday that such a deal was in the works but said it had not been completed.

Kletz indicated that the television-radio rights, which figure as a $1,000,000 wrinkle, was one of the main problems that had to be worked out.

Bangor, Me.—Len Durham, 144, Brooklyn, knocked out Bob "Red" Perkins, 141, Manchester, N. H., 6.

Kingston High School's crack golf squad routed Middletown 11½ to 6½ in their second match of the season on the tough par-72 Orange County Golf Club.

Dick Davenport, youthful Wilcox Club star, shot low medal of 66 on the rain-soaked course, with identical rounds of 43.

Three of the four Kingston players broke 90 despite the adverse conditions. Leon Randall posted 45-43-48; Wells 46-43-89; and Bostic 52-44-56. Middletown's best score was a 48-45-93 by Bearlsto.

Renew Rivalry

New York, May 12 (AP) — The Davis Cup tennis teams of Mexico and Cuba will clash for the first time since 1935 when they open the American zone competition July 2 at Havana. That date for the first round play of the zone was announced yesterday by the United States Lawn Tennis Association. There are only four challengers in the American zone first round series. Australia and Canada will clash July 22-24 at Montreal.

The University of Illinois and Syracuse, who will play a football series in 1951 and 1952, have met twice before—in 1909 and 1910.

Columbia's baseball, tennis and track teams will end their seasons against Army.

Ferraro Blasts 702 In Summer Classic

High School Nine Seeks First Win

Kingston High seeks its first DUSO League baseball victory Friday against Newburgh Free Academy at municipal stadium.

The seven-inning contest will start at 4 p. m.

Henry Levy, right hander, will pitch for Kingston. The Maroon has dropped two straight in conference play but is counting on N.F.A. to furnish the usual incentive for a victory.

Johnny Ferraro added another "700" series to his growing collection with a 230-258-214-702 blast this week in the opening session of the Summer Classic at the Bowldrome.

"The Ace" did it the hard way by striking out in the tenth frame of the third game. With a 4-8 count in hand, Ferraro spared to start the third game and then doubled. But strikes refused to come until the final box when he stepped up and knocked off the three strikes he needed.

Just like the champ, that he is.

Thrilling the good size crowd with repeated trick shots, Caras also turned in several high runs of 16 and 17.

Caras holds record high runs of 125 and 127 in official championship play.

Grand Jurors Association Dines

Principals at the annual dinner of the Grand Jurors Association, Wednesday evening in the Kirkland Hotel were Thomas J. Murphy, president; County Judge John M. Cashin, Attorney William A. Kelly, District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn, Chester Elliott, Assistant District Attorney Vincent G. Connelly and Henry G. Macholdt. (Freeman Photo)

Calls Grand Jury Powerful Bulwark To U.S. Democracy

The importance of the grand jury system in protecting the rights of the citizen was vividly pointed out by Attorney William A. Kelly Wednesday evening at the May dinner meeting of the Grand Jurors Association held at the Kirkland Hotel.

Kelly told members of the association that theirs was a great tradition, for the very first charge to any New York state grand jury was given by Chief Justice Jay in Kingston in 1777.

Under the constitution of the state of New York the citizen is assured of freedom of speech, right of Habeas Corpus, trial by jury, freedom of worship and religion as well as many other things but the provision that no person shall be held for a capital or otherwise infamous crime "unless on indictment of a grand jury." Mr. Kelly said was "the most heart-warming news to any true lover of democracy and liberty."

"It is a powerful bulwark to our democratic form of government, and without which our nation would be another totalitarian state," said Mr. Kelly.

That manner of men were those who fashioned our constitution and established the grand jury system? They were men with "an understanding of and belief in a Divine Being," the speaker said.

Continuing the speaker said in part: "That truly great instrument, the Declaration of Independence, says, near its beginning: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, and that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. And the very last sentence of that same document reads: 'And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor.'"

"Crystal clear is the moral and spiritual character of those great men reflected thereby. Existence of a Supreme Being and our necessity for and absolute dependence upon a Divine Creator breathe from their every paragraph. They knew that man alone could do nothing, and that there could be no true democracy without a reverent acknowledgment of and belief in a God. And how well do the Communists know that too!"

As almost a first step in crushing any country, they persecute and persecute all religions, Jews, Protestants and Catholics alike. They know that once they can substitute the state for God, democracy must, of necessity, perish. And yet the United States agreed to open the original session of the United Nations—dedicated to the peace of the world—in San Francisco without prayer, in deference to godless Russia. Peace, thus far, has not been achieved, but is it any wonder? Consider that as you read the opening words of the Constitution of the state of New York: 'We, the people of the state of New York, grateful to Almighty God for our freedom, in order to secure its blessings, do establish this Constitution.'

Attorney Kelly called upon all to "rekindle the flame that burned in the hearts of our forefathers" to preserve democracy for ourselves and to insure peace for the world.

County Judge John M. Cashin, honorary president of the association, introduced the speaker. Thomas J. Murphy presided at the meeting, welcoming the guests and giving a brief survey of the activities of the association which during the past year has "gained 80 new members."

President Murphy presented District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn who acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the guests at the speaker's table. Among those present were Commissioners of Jurors Frank McCaville, Fred Bruhn, grand jury photographer; City Judge Ray Mino; Assistant District Attorney Vincent G. Connelly and Judge Cashin.

Among those who were in attendance at the dinner was Henry Winchell of Olive Bridge, who has served many times in the past as juror of grand juries and who was a charter member of the Grand Jurors Association and is probably the oldest member of the association.

Dewey Gives Warning On Blockade Lifting

London, May 12 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey greeted the end of the Berlin blockade with a warning last night:

"Be wary of bear traps," the twice-defeated, Republican presidential candidate told a news conference in London where he is vacationing. "Problems of Russian motivation, as serious as those we are now solving, may be raised. Many difficulties remain."

The New York governor addressed the Royal Institute of International Affairs last night. His speech was off the record.

Today he will visit Oxford University and Stratford-on-Avon, birthplace of William Shakespeare.

The party left London under leaden skies which threatened rain. Following today's sight-seeing, Dewey's stay is laid out with precision to take in visits with important political figures, an address to members of the House of Commons and visits to historical places.

The conservative Daily Telegraph commented Dewey's vacation "has been organized with all that efficiency and devotion to detail which characterized his election campaigns."

London newspapers have not given Dewey's visit much space. Only two of them reported his news conference.

The liberal News Chronicle said "He was smiling more consistently than should be expected from a man who has lost two presidential elections in a row."

The governor's secretary, Paul Lockwood, said most of the papers had phoned for comment on various issues but "the governor is on holiday" and gave no opinions.

Potential 'Gang Fight' Brings Intervention

Local police reported intervening last night to prevent a threatened "gang fight" at Albany avenue and East St. James street. The report at 10:25 p. m., said that the group had gathered at the uptown intersection and "it appears as if there is going to be a fight."

Officers George Bowers and Frank Sammons were dispatched to the scene and reported that a group from Woodstock was looking for Kingston boys who had been causing trouble at the Myron J. Michael school as well as out of school.

The boys dispersed with the promise that there would be no trouble, the officers said.
